

Mama on the Grind

The Raising Him Alone Campaign invites single mothers who are raising a male child from across the country to write a short essay (450 words) about “What does it take to raise a healthy male child in a toxic society?” The contest is a part of the campaign’s overall efforts to improve the lives of children and families.

Winning essayists will receive a reconditioned Dell Laptop. Four winners will be selected from across the country. The winning essays will be posted on the Raising Him Alone Campaign web site (www.raisinghimalone.com).

Sponsored by the Urban Leadership Institute, RASP & Institute for Interactive Instruction. Essays are due by 6:00 p.m. on September 30, 2010. Winners will be notified by October 15, 2010.

Essays can be completed via our web site at www.raisinghimalone.com/giveaways or by emailing Charlene Strawberry at Cstrawberry@urbanleadershipinstitute.com.

Essays must include the following information:

Name & Address, City & State,
Contact Telephone number & email address
Number of male children that you are raising

**Contest is not eligible to staff or partnering organizations of the Raising Him Alone Campaign.

Urban Leadership Institute

